

SUPREME COURT—SPECIAL TERM—OUT 16.—Before Judge Sutherland.

THE GLASS BOTTLE COMPANY AGAIN.—2 TAX-PAYER HAS STANDING IN COURT.

James Merton, Esq., Francis W. Wood and Samuel C. Johnson, for plaintiff in tax-payer.

Plaintiff in tax-payer, sued out an injunction against defendants to restrain the payment for the $300 glass bottle boxes ordered by the Police Commissioners for the city of New York. It will be observed that the amount of $300 was charged on the bill, and a total of $500 for the whole charge.

Homer submitted affidavits showing that they could be made for less than $30 each, and alleged fraud in the giving out of the contract, and asked to be discharged.

Yesterday Judge Dean, the defendant, moved that the complaint be dismissed with the decision of the General Term, that a tax-payer has no standing in Court when the cause of action is common with all the tax-payers in the city.

Judge Sutherland ordered the complaint to be dismissed.

Ex-Judge Whiting for plaintiff; ex-Judge Dean for defendant.

IN CHAMBERS—Before Judge Sutherland.

THE END OF THE LOWELL CASE.—THE PEOPLE v. A. C. FLACE.

The People vs. A. C. Flace, at Robert W. Lowell, The Mayor, &c.

This is an old motion made before Judge Sutherland, to vacate the injunction order in this case, made by Judge Davis.

Both friends and acquaintances are invited to attend the funeral of the late Senator John J. Crittenden, No. 12 East Thirty-third street, on Saturday morning, Oct. 20, at 12 o'clock.

The friends and acquaintances are invited to attend the funeral of the late Senator John J. Crittenden, No. 12 East Thirty-third street, on Saturday morning, Oct. 20, at 12 o'clock.

WOO—On Saturday, Oct. 16, Mary W., eldest daughter of Augustus L. and Nancy Wood, in the 21st year of her age.

Her friends are respectively invited to attend her funeral on Tuesday morning, Oct. 19, at 12 o'clock, in the residence of her parents, No. 20 Fulton street.

WALTER—In Brooklyn, on Friday morning, Oct. 15, of consumption, William Warren, aged 39 years.

WOLFE—At No. 344 Bleeker street, on Friday, Oct. 15, after a short illness, Anna Chapman, wife of the late Benjamin Wolfe.

YOUNG—At Chappaqua, Westchester County, on Friday morning, Oct. 15, Nathaniel Young, in the 72d year of his age.

SHULTON—In this city, on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 14, Mrs. Shulton, wife of Joseph Shulton, aged 44 years, also on Saturday morning, Oct. 17, after a short illness, Joseph Shulton, husband of the above, aged 46 years.

The funeral will take place from the residence of the church. What the cause of his strange conduct in this affair can be in a mystery even to his most intimate associates, has caused much trouble, and a great mortification to his wife and children, and a shadow over the character of one who seemed to be pure, entering upon a life of sin and happiness.

—Sunday Times.

ATTEMPT TO SHOOT A MINISTER IN HIS CHURCH.

About 8 o'clock last evening a Frenchman by the name of Le Berrier entered the Methodist Episcopal Church in Thirty-fourth street, near the Eighth avenue, with a pistol loaded with ball, and fired it at the pastor, the Rev. M. D. C. Crawford, who, however, escaped without injury. The greatest alarm was caused by the circumstance. The offender was taken into custody by an officer of the Twentieth Ward. He gave as a reason for his singular conduct that the pastor had insulted him in a previous sermon. He is supposed to be deranged.

Ex-Judge Whiting for plaintiff; ex-Judge Dean for defendant.

IN CHAMBERS—Before Judge Sutherland.

THE END OF THE LOWELL CASE.

The People vs. A. C. Flace, at Robert W. Lowell, The Mayor, &c.

This is an old motion made before Judge Sutherland, to vacate the injunction order in this case, made by Judge Davis.

Both friends and acquaintances are invited to attend the funeral of the late Senator John J. Crittenden, No. 12 East Thirty-third street, on Saturday morning, Oct. 20, at 12 o'clock.

The friends and acquaintances are invited to attend the funeral of the late Senator John J. Crittenden, No. 12 East Thirty-third street, on Saturday morning, Oct. 20, at 12 o'clock.

WALTER—In Brooklyn, on Friday morning, Oct. 15, of consumption, William Warren, aged 39 years.

WOLFE—At No. 344 Bleeker street, on Friday, Oct. 15, after a short illness, Anna Chapman, wife of the late Benjamin Wolfe.

YOUNG—At Chappaqua, Westchester County, on Friday morning, Oct. 15, Nathaniel Young, in the 72d year of his age.

A motion was this morning made by Henry H. Bennett, Esq., Counsel for one of the Creditors of the North American Gaitor Parachute Company, that the stock and effects of the Corporation be repossessed by the Creditors, and that the sum of $100,000 be paid to the Company for an account amount of $200,000 were represented by Messrs. E. C. Bonnard, Cardozo and Leonard, esqrs., respectively. The Court ordered that Richard T. Dunning be appointed Receiver to take proper securities from Mr. H. H. Bennett, whom the Creditors named as Receiver.

DECISION.

Ambrose C. Kingland, esq., atg., W. A. Bartlett et al. Motion denied.

Judge Baldwin, of the Sixth Judicial District, heard motions in the State Supreme Court yesterday, on Saturday morning, to withdraw this District for the next two weeks, and will probably preside at one of the Circuits.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—SPECIAL TERM—OUT 16—Before Judge Bradbury.

Edgarson vgt. Thompson.—Case settled.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Judge Bradbury.

It was sentence day in this Court today, and there were no trials. James Smith alias Gallagher, convicted of an attempt at burglary, was sentenced, on account of his youth, for one year to the Penitentiary. His co-defendant, still younger than himself, was sentenced to the same term, and will be sent to the Penitentiary for the same period of time.

John Keane, alias Keaney, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose, and therefore did not sentence the prisoner.

The Court adjourned.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS—OUT 16—Before Justices Osgood, Weston and Kelly.

John Adamson, stealing cotton—Penitentiary 6 months; Thomas Austin, stealing silver coin—House of Refuge; Joseph Conner, assault and battery—Remanded; George Dietz, assault and battery—Remanded; Robert Lindford, assault and battery—Fined $20; Julius Lawton, assault and battery—Fined $20; Owen McLean, assault and battery—Penitentiary 6 months; Charles Phelan, assault and battery—Remanded; The City Judge, alias Charles Phelan, for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. James Phelan pleaded guilty to the same offense, and received the same punishment. John H. Brown, alias Brownie, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year to prison for an attempt at burglary. The trial date, while the plaintiff's counsel was present to present the matter to the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court, as he chose,